ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE PRIEST.

An attempt to assassinate Rev. J. K. Fielding, pastor of Corpus Christi Roman Catholic Church of Chicago, was made yesterday afternoon. After twice shooting at the priest in the hallway of the Sunday school, the assassin, knocking down several children that stood in his way, ran into the street and escaped. The priest was not hurt.

The culprit first attracted attention by loitering about the church and writing on a sheet of paper which he held against the building.

Made curious by the man's peculiar actions, Father Fielding asked him, "What are you doing here?"

"I'm praying," replied the stranger.

As the priest turned his back, the stranger drew a revolver and pressed it against the head of his intended victim. Father Fielding immediately knocked the weapon away, just in time to escape a bullet which grazed his head and clipped a lock of hair from his temple. The priest then knocked the culprit down.

Hurriedly scrambling to his feet, the man continued down the hallway, pushing and trampling over many children. At the bottom of the stairway he turned and fired another ineffectual shot at the priest, and then, still brandishing the revolver, ran down the street.

Children and citizens, accompanied by Father Fielding, pursued the man, but he escaped.

DR. MARSTELLER ARRESTED.

Dr. E. H. Marsteller, of Baltimore, and a surgeon in the navy, was arrested at Manassas Friday upon a warrant sworn out by J. B. Rhinehart, a railroad contractor, of Washington, charging him with having threatened Mrs. Rhinehart's life in Gainesville district, in Prince William county, the evening previous.

The accused was brought before Justice Hutchison, who decided that the offense was committed beyond his jurisdicton and referred the case back to Magistrate Horton, of Gainesville district who issued the warrant. The affair grew out of a meeting, in the public highway, of Dr. Marsteller, who was on horseback, and Mr. Rhinehart and his wife in their automobile. Dr. Marsteller's horse took fright at the automobile and it is alleged he used abusive language to Mr. Rhinehart and drawing a revolver, threatened to shoot him.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ERA OF CHURCH BUILDING.

An era of extensive church building in St. Louis culminated yesterday in the laying of the cornerstone of the new Roman Catholic Cathedral, which when completed will cost over $2,000,000, and in the dedication of the Second Baptist Church at Kings Highway and McPherson avenue, which has just been completed at a cost of $250,000.

The cathedral ceremonies brought to the city an assemblage of church dignataries from many parts of the nation, and were witnessed by an immense concourse of people.

Seven archbishops, 13 bishops and 500 clergymen, scholastics and seminarians took part in the cornerstone ceremonies and reviewed the parade from a stand on the cathedral site. It took the 10,000 marchers three hours to file past the reviewing stand.

The parade was not more than half over when Archbishop Diomede Falconio, papal delegate to the United States, began the ceremony of laying the corner stone.

When the last marchers had passed the crowd surged around a temporary platform, from which, as darkness came on, Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, read a message of congratulation from President Roosevelt and delivered a discourse. A massive electrically illuminated cross, high on a scaffold, threw its light over the thousands of listeners.

SOURCES OF TYPHOID.

The reports of Surgeon Gen. Wyman and Health Officer Woodward of the investigation jointly conducted by the District of Columbia physicians and officers of the public health and marine hospital service into the epidemic in Georgetown, disclose one of the most remarkable discoveries in medical history in connection with the source and spread of typhoid fever. The investigation established the fact that a woman milker, at a neighboring diary, who had had typhoid fever eighteen years ago, still throws off in her dejecta virile typhoid fever bacilli and was the responsible agent in spreading the disease.

With one exception this is the first considerable outbreak of typhoid fever in the United States, traced through milk, to such a carrier. A peculiar feature in connection with the case is that the examination developed large numbers of typhoid bacilli in the dejecta of the woman, although she apparently was enjoying good health. Surgeon Gen. Wyman says an important source of the disease has been developed.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 19, 1908.

HAVING finished his political itinerary for the week which began in Ohio with the music, "Marching Through Georgia," as an inspiration, passing through Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia, Judge Taft closed his work in Richmond on Saturday night. The republican presidential candidate says he is making these visits for the purpose of showing that "the south is a part of the union, and as such is entitled to be considered in a presidential campaign." This is a very kind concession upon the part of Mr. Taft, coming as it does forty-three years after the war. In some of his speeches he has expressed a hope of securing some votes in the south and we suppose in Richmond he intimated that he would accept the olive branch, if it were offered him. Persons, now living in Alexandria, those of good memories, can recall that in the early seventies the City Council elected all the officers of the city except the mayor. The representatives from the Fourth ward were all republicans—in the Board of Aldermen two colored men and in the Common Council two colored men and two whites; the other three wards were democratic. One of the positions to be filled by Council, that of night scavenger, paid well, and John A. Seaton, the colored Alderman from the Fourth ward, nominated Hannibal King, colored, saying at the time, "Give us this position, it is one that should be filled by a colored man, and we will accept the olive branch, although there is something unclean on the end of it." In a way Judge Taft's invitation to the dance is something on the same order, for he says he endorses fully and unequivocally the republican platform, and among other things this platform says:

The republican party has been for more than fifty years the consistent friend of the American negro. We declare for the enforcement in letter and spirit of the thirteeth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution which were designed for the protection and advancement of the negro, and we consider all devices that have for their real aim his disfranchisement for color alone.

Mr. Taft will not hold out this to the south as an olive branch, and ask us to accept it although there is "something unclean on the end of it." Every man who is not a hypocrite knows and admits that all the recent legislation in the south regarding elections was for the purpose of disfranchising the large and growing number of ignorant and vicious blacks, and at the same time preserve the right of suffrage to every deserving white man within its borders. Mr. Bryan says Judge Taft will not make the same speech in the east that he has made in the west. Neither has he made a speech since he reached Tennessee, on the same lines that he used in Ohio in addressing a meeting of blacks. There is, however, a class of men in the south that sooner than see Mr. Bryan elected would welcome a reduction in southern representation in the House of Representatives and the electoral college, much as that would humiliate their poorer, though prouder, neighbors. This class we have always denominated as the "gushers" and the "recanters."

THE New York Herald published yesterday, from its Washington bureau, a table, showing the distribution of electoral votes, based two weeks before the close of the campaign on polls, straw votes, betting, and reports made by disinterested parties:

Total vote in electoral college	483
Necessary to elect a president	242
Republican reasonably sure	204
Democratic reasonably sure	161

In the doubtful column it places the states of Indiana, Kansas, New York, South Dakota, Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, Ohio, Maryland and Delaware. This is a most encouraging outlook for the democrats but the election at which Mr. Bryan expects to win will be held two weeks from tomorrow. The republicans always elect their candidates before an election day.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 19.

President Roosevelt today ordered the Department of Justice to wire District Attorney Duckel to proceed at once with the case of the defunct Farmers and Drovers National Bank, of Waynesburg, Pa.

Herman Billik, the Chicago murderer, must die. He lost his appeal in the Supreme Court today from the decision of Judge Landis, denying him a writ of habeas corpus.

The question of what government work might be given the Bethlehem Steel Company of Bethlehem, Pa., was taken up by President Roosevelt today. Representative Broadhead headed a delegation who represented between 4,000 and 5,000 unemployed steel workers, and laid before the president their request, backed by the petition of the business interests of their community. The president expressed the hope that the government might be able to do something in the matter and referred his callers to Secretary Metcalf of the Navy Department, with whom they were in conference later in the day.

Judge Clayton, of Alabama, who has been compaigning for Bryan and the democratic congressional candidates in the middle west, returned to Washington yesterday full of enthusiasm over the outlook for the democrats in that region.

Some interest attaches to the maiden republican speech of Secretary of War Luke Wright, a former democrat, which will be made in New York city tonight. It is understood that Gen. Wright goes to New York on this mission, at the express request of President Roosevelt. The secretary has spent considerable time in preparation of his speech which, it is said, will treat of Judge Taft from the intimate personal standpoint. Later in the month, the new war secretary will speak in Richmond, Va., and will make several speeches at other points in that state.

Tim White, a blind evangelist from Alexandria, Va., called at the White House today to present to President Roosevelt a suggestion that hereafter Cabinet meetings be opened with prayer. The president was too busy to see Mr. White, who left the suggestion with Secretary Loeb.

Mrs. Hain's Statement.

New York, Oct. 19.—Because she repulsed his advances T. Jenkins Hains revenged himself by leading his brother, Captain Peter C. Hains first to charge his wife with infidelity and then murder William E. Annis the declaration of Mrs. Hains in a lengthy statement made public today in the King county supreme court records. The statement was one of the documents submitted to Justice Carr in support of Mrs. Hains' motion for alimony and custody of her children, both of which were denied her today by Judge Carr's decision. Mrs Hains charges the novelist with attempting to enter her room and force his advances upon her during the absence of her husband and with declaring his intention to be revenged when she repulsed him. She further claims to have been forced by her husband and a lawyer to sign a confession while drugged and denies all allegation as to her relation with Annis.

After denying being guilty of any impropriety with Mrs. Annis, Mrs. Hains closes her statement with the blackening charge against T. Jenkins Hains.

Forest Fires.

Detroit, Oct. 19.—The total number of dead by forest fires is approximately fifty and there are about 4,000 homeless.

Today's reports from the fire district say that the devastation is practically over. Shifting winds have turned the flames and they are burning themselves out.

A rough estimate places the loss at $2,000,000.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Reports from the Adirondacks today indicate that the forest fires in that section are burning more fiercely than at any time this summer, and that the situation is extremely alarming.

The homes of many millionaires are threatened today by the forest fires sweeping the Berkshires, which are dotted with the estates of wealthy men.

Bryan's Prospects.

New York, Oct. 19.—"If the democratic show a 25 per cent. increase over the vote cast in 1904 Bryan will be carried to election, said democratic National Chairman Mack today. I base my statement on a poll taken by my agents in Rochester, Buffalo, Indianapolis and Columbus, O. In those places the democratic poll shows a change of from 25 to 40 per cent from the Roosevelt vote of 1904."

Preparing to Receive Bryan.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—When William J. Bryan arrives here tonight he will be met by the biggest red fire display Chicago has witnessed since the old time campaigns. The Cook county marching club will meet Bryan at the station and escort him to Pilsen Park, where he will deliver an address. The "marchers" will go in automobiles. Later Bryan will make another speech on the southside.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mr. Taft opened his campaign in New Jersey with a meeting in Newark this morning.

Rescued at sea after being eight days adrift without food or water, the Grand Banks fishermen were brought to Boston today on the liner Republic.

Richard Croker, former Tammany chief, has sent $1,000 to the democratic national campaign fund and $500 to the democratic State committee, of New York.

There was a rumor in Yokohama today that Lieut. Frank T. Evans, son of Admiral Evans, would retire from the navy as the result of the loss of 150 points by the decision of the court martial that tried him on charges of intoxication, disrespect to his superior officers and absenting himself from duty.

Five hundred Harvard students fled from their dinner in Cambridge, this afternoon, when the ammonia reservoir in the ice making plant burst flooding the building with suffocating fumes. A dozen maids in the kitchen were overcome and rescued with difficulty.

The battleship Maine, first of the Atlantic fleet to complete the tour round the world, docked at the Portsmouth, N. H., Navy Yard at 8:30 this morning. The whole town turned out to greet the battleship, which is the first ever put into the local dry dock, recently hewn out of solid rock at an expense of $2,000,000.

The main business block of the Chautauqua Assembly, known as the Colonade, at Dunkirk, N. Y., was burned to the ground with its entire contents, including the postoffice, the Chautauqua Institution, printing plant and nine stores and shops, at five o'clock this morning. Loss $150,000.

Harry Y. Watson, former paying teller of the wrecked Allegheny National Bank, of Pittsburg, Pa., who is charged with aiding and abetting former Cashier William Montgomery in the misapplication and abstraction of $496,000 from the bank's fund, gave himself up today to U. S. Marshal Stone. He was released on bail.

The large stables, barn, locker house, garage and two valuable horses of the fashionable White Marsh Valley Country Club, two miles from Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, were destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss is $50,000; nearly covered by insurance.

Judge Taft spent yesterday at the White House, and was closeted during a part of it with President Roosevelt and former cabinet colleagues.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in Boston on Saturday against the firm of E. H. Gay & Co., stock brokers; liabilities are estimated at from $7,000,000 to $8,000,000.

After Jesse Crouse, aged 16 years, killed his brother Philip, aged 19, near Bluefield, he fled and his four other brothers are leading a posse searching for him.

The American battleship fleet arrived at Yokohama, Sunday morning and was warmly welcomed. Brilliant illuminations and balls and receptions characterized the cordial greeting of the Japanese.

An overheated stove set fire to a dwelling house at Summit, a mining town, ten miles west of Altoona, Pa., early yesterday morning, in which four children lost their lives, and two persons were probably fatally injured.

Ten men were robbed of cash in amounts ranging from $5 to $100, while attending a big demonstration at Salisbury, N. C., in honor of Judge Taft Saturday. Their pocketswere picked and the robbers escaped without detection.

Dr. William Harris Ashmead, assistant curator of the United States National Museum, died Saturday night in Washington, aged 53 years. He was regarded as one of the ablest entomologists in the world. Overwork caused his death.

In a letter addressed to Attorney-General Bonaparte, Josephus Daniels, head of the literary bureau of the democratic national committee, declares that while the Roosevelt administration has been prosecuting actions against 40 trusts, 106 new ones have been formed.

Field Marshal Marquis Nodzu, the famous Japanese commander who forced the passage of the Yalu river at the outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war and fought the fierce battle of Nanshan, in which he lost some 2,500 men in order to beat the Russians back, is dead.

Twenty-five million barrels, or 62,500,000 bushels of apples is the estimated yield this season, according to reports received by Harry J. Neely, secretary of the National Apple Show, of Spokane, from 15,000 growers operating in the various belts in the union.

William N. Sweeney, a special agent of the Glens Falls (N. Y.) Fire Insurance Company for Maryland, Delaware, and eastern Virginia, blew out his brains with a revolver yesterday afternoon in his office in Baltimore. Sweeney left behind him no letter or explanation but it is believed that he took his life on account of despondency over his health and financial troubles. His stenographer says she tried for two hours Friday to convince him that life was worth living.

Cornered by a posse at Lithonia, Ga., yesterday morning, Charles Mitchell, a negro desperado, killed Deputy Sheriffs Peek and Frank Argo, seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Elliott, and then escaped. Saturday night the negro made a murderous assault on a white man. A warrant was sworn out for the negro, and a posse went to his home yesterday morning. As the posse approached, the negro appeared in the door of the house and opened fire.

Reports from the forest fires district of northern Michigan are fragmentary, but there were indications of improvement in the general situation as far as imminent danger to life and property is concerned. The conditions of the victims who survived the destruction of their homes and villages is pitiful in the extreme, with the likelihood of greater distress and many deaths from exposure and lack of food in the event of a sudden drop of temperature falling upon the half-clothed refugees camped in box cars and open fields.

Bulgaria has backed down, according to Naoum Pasha, the Turkish ambassador at Paris, and not only has the possibility of war which appeared imminent Saturday night been eliminated, but an understanding between Bulgaria and Turkey is in sight The ambassador yesterday practically admitted that Saturday the two countries were on the verge of war and explained that while his denial of the mobilization of the Turkish troops was literally true, it was equally true that mobilization had been previously ordered, and then suspended. The Servian foreign minister is on a tour of the capitals of the powers to place Servia's wishes before the respective governments in an effort to reach an understanding on the Balkan situation. Crown Prince George instructed him to make no concessions.

Virginia News.

Argument of the two-cent rate case from Virginia in the U. S. Supreme Court in Washington will not be completed until Tuesday afternoon.

The ancient and historic Society of the Cincinnati in the state of Virginia convened in annual session at the Westmoreland Club in Richmond, this morning, at 10 o'clock and will adjourn this evening.

Governor Swanson left Richmond Sunday evening for New York, where he will enter the campaign and make a series of speeches in the city and State. He will be away for a week.

Gov. Swanson has declined to commute the sentence of William Green, colored, who is to die October 20 for attempted assault on a little white girl in Chesterfield county, although the victim's father is said to have signed the petition for commutation.

The board of supervisors of Shenandoah county have resolved that it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, kill or capture any wild turkeys, pheasants grouse, quail, partridges, woodcock or rabbits in the county, except between the 15th day of November and the 15th day of December—inclusive.

Received with the utmost courtesy and cordiality by a large audience, Mr. Taft, republican nominee for president, delivered a strong campaign speech at the horse show building, in Richmond, Saturday night. He was most courteously received and his speech attentively listened to. A large majority of his hearers were democrats. This was the first speech of a republican candidate in Richmond certainly since 1860. Mr. Taft did not in any way touch on the relation between the races in the south, and made a bad break when he said: "I believe the south is in sympathy with protection."

The Balkan Situation.

Sofia, Oct. 19.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria today received the members of the special commission sent from Turkey to negotiate, if possible, a settlement of the Turko-Bulgarian troubles. While on the surface the meeting is proceeding along pacificatory lines, little hope is entertained here that the negotiations will succeed.

Bulgaria has practically been forced to submit to these negotiations by the other powers, principally by France, whose activity in the crisis of Saturday is believed to have averted for the time being the commencement of hostilities between Turkey and Bulgaria.

Under these conditions Bulgaria is making a show of engaging in the conference in good faith. Her real purpose, it is recognized, is to assume a friendliness in order to catch Turkey off her guard and when the opportune moment arrives to throw off her mask, grab Macedonia and strike with all her might against Turkey.

The Bulgarian war spirit is just as high as ever, and any agreement that entails an indemnity to Turkey will be bitterly resisted.

Belgrade, Oct. 19.—A new and startling war menace arose today in the arrest of an Austrian army officer by the Servian authorities who claim that the officer is a spy.

The Austrian minister has demanded the officer's release and has threatened to call on the Austrian gunboats in the Danube, but a few miles from Belgrade, to enforce his demands. The situation is so serious that many of the foreign residents are sending their families out of the country.

The Servian authorities refuse absolutely to release the officer pending thorough investigation of his movements. They say he had been under surveillance and was unquestionably acting as a spy.

Cronstadt, Oct. 19.—The Russian battleships Czarevitch and Slava and the Cruiser Bogatyr sailed today for Turkish waters to watch the developments between Turkey and Bulgaria. The exact destination of the fleet was not announced.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—That Russia intends to aid Turkey in the event of a clash with Bulgaria is believed here to be clearly indicated in the dispatch of a Russian fleet from Cronstadt to Turkish waters. The admiralty veils its explanation with the vague announcement that the fleet goes to Turkey merely to "watch developments." The Russian public believes that the fleet will not only watch developments but will take part in them if its assistance is needed by Turkey.

Paris, October 19.—As the result of a conference today between M. Constans, the French ambassador, and Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha, the order for the mobilization of Turkish troops in Asia Minor has been withdrawn. M. Constans gave the grand vizier assurances that Bulgaria had no intention of declaring war.

Engagement Not Broken.

Rome, Oct. 19.—Within 24 hours of his renunciation of his love for Miss Katherine Elkins, the Duke of the Abruzzi again listened to the voice of Cupid rather than the command of his king, and as a result it was officially announced today that the engagement of the duke and Miss Elkins is not broken.

Only last Friday it is said King Emmanuel told the duke, who is his cousin, that unless he could obtain the consent of his brothers, Duke Aosta and Count Tourin, and Dowager Queen Margherita, the wedding would not be permitted. Realizing the helplessness of trying to win Duke Aosta and the dowager queen to his side Abruzzi reluctantly and sadly announced that the engagement would be broken, and his decision so delighted the dowager queen that she telegraphed her congratulations to him. Within a few hours Abruzzi was so overwhelmed by his grief he wired the king that it was impossible for him to live without Miss Elkins, and that he would continue his suit even if it involved his expatriation. Emmanuel knew the temper of the duke and realizing that it would be futile to oppose him further, gave his consent.

The king's decision make it certain that Miss Elkins, when she becomes the wife of the duke, will be received courteously, even if not joyously, by the Italian court.

The Strike in New York.

New York, Oct. 19.—Denouncing Police Commissioner Bingham for permitting "crooks from other states" to come here as special police for the New York Taxicab Company, its striking employes today started what is promised to be the most bitter week of the strike, which has practically paralized Broadway motor transit.

Rioting in many parts of the city marked Sunday, and throughout the whole central section of Manhattan clashes were frequent and serious. No one was killed, but many, both of the strikers and the special policemen, were badly hurt, and the night courts worked overtime dealing out punishment to the disturbers on both sides of the war.

No strike of the Liberty Dawn men is to come at this time, it being deemed the part of of wisdom for the members of that organization to continue working as a backbone of the taxicab war which the men declare will be fought to a finish.

Murdered and Robbed.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 19.—Because of the habit, when drinking of "flashing his roll" Allen Weldy proprietor of the City Hotel here, is today a corpse. Weldy started home just before last midnight after imbibing freely, and while passing the opera house was dealt a blow on the head which fractured the skull, Weldy dying early this morning. His assailant is not known.

Last night he "flashed" over $200. When the body was discovered shortly after the crime's commission entire "flash" was missing.

LETTER TO FRANK S HARPER

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: The test of truth is evidence. Words in themselves prove nothing.

When we say Devoe takes less gallons for a job we prove it by the following offer:

Paint half your job Devoe; paint half with any other paint. If Devoe half don't take less gallons and cost less money, no pay.

Here's an instance.

Judge I D Fairchild owns two houses, exactly alike, in Lufkin, Texas. J M Torrence painted both houses, one Devoe, 15½ gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons. That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15 per cent. whiting; that's why it took 9½ gallons more.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

Insane from Suffering.

New York, Oct. 19.—Practically insane and in a state of utter collapse from exposure, Mrs Abbie Merriongola, who was twice abducted and suffered terrible abuse at the hands of two Italians was found today near Long Swamp at Huntington, L. I. Raffello Orleane and Michael Darino, the young woman's assailants, are in jail at Huntington and under heavy guard to prevent a probable attempt at lynching. If her condition improves, Mrs. Merringola will be taken to the jail today to identify the prisoners.

Refused Mandamus.

New York, Oct. 19.—Women's suffrage in New York state was dealt a body blow when Justice Truax, in the Supreme court denied the application of Dr. Julia Sears, a suffragette, for a writ of mandamus to compel the board of election inspectors to reconvene and register her as a voter. Dr. Sears contended that, having voted at three presidential elections in Colorado, and having lived here more than a year, she was entitled to exercise the right of suffrage.

Microbes in the Scalp

The Latest Explanation is that Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand of Paris, France, share the honor of having discovered the hair microbe.

Baldness is not caused through a few week's work of these hair microbes, but is the result of conditions brought about by their presence. Baldness may not occur until years after the microbes began work, but it is certain to come sooner or later.

The microbes cut off the blood supply. They feed on the fatty matter about the root of the hair, through which the blood is absorbed. Finally the fatty matter is wholly consumed, the food supply of the hair is gone and it starves and finally dies.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers; Beta Napthol is both germicidal and antiseptic; Pilocarpin, though not a die, restores natural color to hair when loss of color was caused by disease. These curatives properly mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfect a remedy unequalled for curing scalp and hair troubles.

We want everyone who has any scalp or hair trouble to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, which contains all these ingredients. If it does not grow hair on your bald head, stop your hair from falling out; cure you of dandruff; make your hair thick, silky, luxuriant; if it does not give you complete satisfaction in every particular, return the empty bottle to us, and we shall return every penny you paid us for it, without question or formality.

Of course, you understand that when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, we do not refer to cases where the roots are entirely dead, the pores of the scalp closed, and the head has the shiny appearance of a billard ball. In cases like this, there is no hope. In all other cases of baldness, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will positively grow hair, or cost the user nothing. W. P. Taylor, 616 King street.

The synod adopted a resolution favoring the proposed plan. The report of Rev. J. E. Booker, superintendent of some mission work, was encouraging. IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of EMANUEL W. WEBB, who died October 19, 1906, two years ago today.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep!
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.
Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep.
Gone but not forgotten.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and and found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

WEDDING IN WASHINGTON.

Miss Anne W. Aasley, daughter of Mr. Harrie Craig Aasley, formerly of this city, and Mr. David Shelby Davis, of Chicago, were married Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, the rector, the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, officiating. The wedding was one of the most beautiful of the season. The chancel was filled with quantities of palms and great clusters of white chrysanthemums. Bunches of annunciation lilies and chrysanthemums, tied with white satin ribbons, marked the pews reserved for the members of the family. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white crepe de chine made directoire and trimmed with white chiffon and ball trimming while the entire gown was embroidered in a flower design. She wore a tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower of lilies of the valley and maiden-hair fern. Mrs. Philip Harrison, of New York, an aunt, was matron of honor. Her gown was a creation of white crepe de chine. She also wore a large white hat and carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Miss Annie Neal, of Huntsville, Ala., who was maid of honor, wore a directoire gown of messaline satin and a large white lace hat. She carried a cluster of white chrysanthemums. Mr. Rodney Davis, of Louisville, Ky., brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Louis Middleton Ansley, brother of the bride; Mr. Robert Waight Fuller, of Alexandria; Mr. Neal Bassett, of Chicago, and Mr. William Orr, of Chicago.

A reception to the relatives and most intimate friends followed at the family residence, 1631 Nineteenth street. The house was decorated with palms, southern smilax, and bunches of white chrysanthemums. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Davis left Washington on their wedding trip, which will include a tour through Canada. After December 15 they will be at home at the Plaza Hotel, Chicago.

FOUR HOUSES DESTROYED.

About 3 o'clock this morning four uncompleted frame dwellings on Payne street, between Princess and Oronoco belonging to Mr. W. H. Peck, were found to be burning. An alarm was sounded and the department was soon on the scene and at work, but on account of the inflammable nature of the material with which the houses were constructed and the fact that the fire had attained considerably headway, all four of the structures were practically destroyed before the progress of the flames could be arrested. There is every reason to believe the houses were set on fire. Two had been almost completed. The houses were insured in the Fairfax Mutual Insurance Company, and in two companies represented by Schneider and Slaymaker. During the progress of the fire Chief Pettey stepped upon a plank and had a nail forced into his foot. Engineer Noble Smith, of the Columbia engine, experienced considerable difficulty in extracting the nails. Mr. Peck furnished the firemen with coffee after the fire had been subdued.

Mr. Peck this morning gave Chief Petty a check for $50 to be divided equally among the members of the three fire companies. He will tear down the remains of the burned buildings and rebuild as soon as possible.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Sewell Sleuman, of Omaha, millionaire grain dealer and owner of a line of grain elevators in Nebraska and Iowa, on Saturday night telephoned his office manager, saying:

"Notify my brother something terrible is going to happen in a few minutes."

Shortly afterward Sleuman shot Miss Eva Hart in the temple. While the girl was dying he wrecked the interior of the Hart cottage, where the tragedy occurred, and then sent a bullet through his own brain, dying immediately.

Sleuman had been infatuated with Miss Hart, who is a manicurist, for three years. Yesterday she decided to leave Omaha and live a better life away from Sleuman.

Immediately after Sleuman had telephoned the message for his brother his office manager notified the police, who attempted to reach the Hart residence before the crime was committed. Nearly an hour elapsed, however, before a policeman reached the place, and both Sleuman and Miss Hart were dead when the door was broken in.

Sleuman left a note, saying Miss Hart had "turned him down" and he could not live without her. After shooting the girl with a little 22-caliber revolver he waited until sure she would die, adding to his note: "She is almost gone now and afterward I will finish the job."

While Miss Hart was breathing her last, Sleuman smashed everything about the house, cutting carpets and clothing with a butcher knife, throwing chinaware against the wall, slashing pictures, breaking chairs, and demolishing everything possible.

When this was finished and Miss Hart was dead, Sleuman lay down on the bed across the feet of the dead girl and shot himself through the temple. Sleuman was 50 years old and had an invalid wife and family at Hastings, Nebr.

MR. BRYAN CONFIDENT.

At Denver on Saturday William J. Bryan unqualifiedly predicted his own election, and in a statement, the first of the kind he has given during the present campaign, he gave the reason why he expected to be elected.

Mr. Bryan sums up the situation as it appears to him, two weeks and two days before election. He believes that a democratic wave even greater than that of 1892 is sweeping over the country, and that every happening of the campaign so far has accelerated rather than checked this movement. Everything up to now, he declared, has gone against the republican; they are divided and fighting among themselves, and he expressed the relief that in the two weeks before the campaign closes it will be impossible for them to save the day. He bases his views not only upon his own personal observation of the situation in the doubtful states, in every one of which he has now made speeches, but upon exhaustive daily reports from National Chairman Mack and from reports made to him by state chairmen in the various states as he has gone through them.

Mr. Bryan started east yesterday on his final tour of the campaign, which will include New York, where he will make a hard fight.
